Churches use the SuperKids® program and curriculum to reach out to children in their surrounding communities.

SuperKids Missions are one or two-week events where a team of volunteers communicates God's Word to children wherever they are.

A SuperKids Mission can be adapted to any children's outreach ministry and to a wide variety of settings, including public beaches, city parks and playgrounds, camps, or any other location where children gather. SuperKids is an ANYWHERE–ANYTIME program.

SuperKids is uniquely different from Vacation Bible School, in that the focus is on reaching children outside the church. SuperKids Missions are offered where children gather, rather than asking children to come to you.

The manual provides step-by-step guidance in setting up and running a SuperKids Mission based on Matthew's Gospel

Each SuperKids Mission Kit comes with start-up tips, one of the four Gospel curricula, a CD containing everything that needs to be printed for the program, and reproducible Bible Diggers Study Sheets for children, youth and older teens/adults. Contact Scripture Union about downloading the curriculum.
